How did you hear about The Haven and our volunteer program?

Have you had any experience working with programs for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking? If yes, what groups did you work with?

Have you done other types of volunteer work before? If yes, what type of work and for what groups?

What is it about the Haven that appeals to you as a potential volunteer?

How much time would you like to donate as a Haven volunteer?

1/2 day per week

1 day per week

4 or more days per month

Which of the following activities could you support with your volunteer hours?

telephoning and e-mailing

inputting data to a database

preparing postal mailings

creating flyers and brochures

hand distribution of flyers

staffing the Haven booth at markets

translating educational materials

providing transportation for clients

child care during client meetings

group facilitations

other (please specify)

Do you have any specialized knowledge, skill, or experience that you believe would be helpful to the Haven (for example, social work background, financial planning, job search skills)?

We ask volunteers to commit to the Haven for at least 1 year? Will that work for you?

Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?

Have you ever been convicted for a crime, including sex-related or child abuse-related offenses? Applicant is not obligated to disclose any reference to a pre or post trial diversion program, any conviction which has been sealed, expunged or erased by the court. (A conviction of a crime will not necessarily be a bar to employment. In accordance with company policy and applicable state and federal laws, factors such as age at time of the offense, remoteness of the offense, time since last conviction, nature of job sought, and rehabilitation effort will be reviewed.)

Upon acceptance as a volunteer, you will be required to consent to a Request for Search of the Central Registry through the Virginia Department of Social Services/Child Protective Services and to a Request for Criminal History Record Name Search of the Virginia State Police Central Criminal Records Exchange, and any other required registries at The Haven's expense.
